

Booth in words of power and pathos spoke of the consecration of her children to the cause of freedom that she had made, and her acceptance of the Cross for the glory of God.

1. The first step in the process is to identify the problem or issue that needs to be addressed. This involves gathering information and understanding the context of the problem.

1. The first step is to identify the key components of the system. This includes the hardware, software, and data. The hardware components are the physical devices that make up the system, such as the computer, the network, and the storage devices. The software components are the programs and applications that run on the hardware. The data components are the information that is stored and processed by the system.

2. The second step is to analyze the system. This involves understanding how the components interact with each other and how the system as a whole functions. This can be done by looking at the system's architecture, its configuration, and its performance.

3. The third step is to design a solution. This involves creating a plan that addresses the problem and meets the requirements. The solution should be based on the analysis of the system and should take into account the constraints and resources available.

4. The fourth step is to implement the solution. This involves putting the plan into action and making any necessary adjustments. This can be done by installing the software, configuring the hardware, and testing the system.

5. The fifth step is to evaluate the solution. This involves assessing the effectiveness of the solution and making any necessary improvements. This can be done by monitoring the system's performance and comparing it to the requirements.

worship Him in Spirit and truth. God is always ready to reveal Himself to those who seek Him with all their hearts, and the reason why there are sometimes so little findings, is that there is so little seeking. Many work hard and fail to obtain earthly riches, but none need fail to obtain his heavenly treasures and the wisdom of knowing Jesus.

When we know God, and ourselves, we have His heart that sometimes an assurance, as He will not accept him as his friend, and fold up his head with confidence, and fasten it upon Him, because God is for him. God is always willing to reveal Himself to those who desire His friendship.

WE were met at the station by the training home Lads and Lassies with a brass band, headed by the Indian-English Warrior, Com'r. Tucker, after a short season of prayer we separated, going to the different homes for our first meal of rice and currie which we enjoyed very much. The next night we had our first meeting in the Coy. barracks which held about two hundred was filled. As we looked into the faces of our congregation, all natives, we saw God, that He had honored us so much that He had allowed us the message of Salvation to this proud people. FOR ARIZONA I have been proving we told you:—
during the past week that God is no respecter of persons, sinners of the deepest dye have been crying to God for mercy, the drunkard and the adulterer, and some of the almost penniless ones have been compelled to cry out, "I yield, I yield, I can hold out no more." Glory to God for a Saviour, mighty to deliver from the hands of sin and Satan.
The devil is getting roused up and some of his followers are getting dissatisfied and singing over to the Lord's side. I pray for us here that all those who have put their hand to the plough may not look back but press forward in Christ.

WATERFORD.

WE and another week's battles and slaying, victory over four prodigals returning home from the country of heathens to a land flowing with milk and honey.
Soldiers meeting and five prodigals get sanctified. Wednesday night two prodigals come home to Jesus. Friday night a wake up the dead meeting.
Soldiers and Christians shouting for joy, and two prodigals wept at the feet of Jesus for forgiveness. Saturday and all day Sunday, very stormy, small crowds but good meetings. Fire a valley for victory.
Capt. Smith.

WATERDOWN.

WEDNESDAY I thank God we are still saved.
Yesterday was rainy storm, but we held the first in spite of the storm in the open air, although the wind was very strong, nearly taking us of our feet.
Thank God fire and love burn in our souls which enables us to fight for Jesus in all weather. Bless the Lord.
Capt. Boper.

HAGERSVILLE. — Capt. New.
Glory be to God another week of fighting gone through, and this day I relax as I sit and write. I am another week's march nearer home, but oh the poor miserable sinners who are not a march nearer but although they have rejected Jesus time and again, spurned the offers of Salvation, refused and sneered at God's children while telling them of their fate, if they don't get saved still we are more than ever determined to send our ground and keep telling the old story of Christ crucified to save their souls, and we are confident of victory, there is good signs. Glory Hallelujah.

OHSEWEEK, (1st. Indian).

HALLSBURG I We can truly say that the Lord has indeed been with us, we have had some blessed times the Lord has been revealing our hearts to us, the idols, and the help of God the soldiers fighting then made the surrender and stepped out in the promises of God. Praise God forever. We have not only got the victory in our own souls, but we are getting the victory over the ranks of the enemy.
Three prodigals have come home to their Heavenly Father, they got tired wandering away in the wilderness of sin, but now have returned. What rejoicing there was not only with us, but the angels rejoiced.

We do with grateful hearts praise God for victory during the past week. We are sitting in darkness have been brought to the light, and they who were in the gall of bitterness and bonds of iniquity have been set free, and are now rejoicing in God's forgiving love.

While others who were living in doubting souls have made their escape, and are now on the highway of holiness basking in the sunlight of God's blessed presence. We are expecting mighty times, our meetings are packed almost nightly. God's blessed presence is felt, and the melting molting influence of the Holy Spirit is plainly felt by many hearts. May God give us a triumph victory.
Capt. Williamson.

PORT HOPE. — Capt. Dunlop.
Glory to God! we can report grand meetings. Through the blood of Jesus, since our last report we have seen 18 souls seeking salvation, and 12 seeking the blessing of holiness. Thank God because He is working so mightily way, we mean victory here God has promised to answer prayer if we abide in the word. This is our motto, to walk with Jesus so that God can use us as winning souls for His kingdom. May God ever keep us humble at His feet.
To Him be all the glory.

LONDON.

PETROLIA.

"IN MYTH OF THE SACRED WARS one of the best weeks for our own souls that we have had since we came to this corps. On Tuesday last we had a special soldiers' meeting, when 71 testified to the saving, keeping, and sanctifying power of the blood of Jesus, and at the close of the meeting we formed a large ring all round the barracks with our hands clasped, and sang "There's my heart, and there's my heart, to meet you in that heavenly land, where we shall part no more," and while we sang, the glory of God seemed to fill the whole place. We sang and prayed, and then we had a new quarter with our faith strong for a mighty work on the hearts of the unconverted. Thursday night we had a mixed meeting, when we sang 51 choruses and Salvation songs without stopping. We ought to have had songs at the close of the meeting, but the people went away exclaiming not to-night, resisting the saving of the loving Saviour. Many of them will have to yield soon, they are getting so uneasy on account of their souls. On Saturday night we had to hold the meeting under difficulties, the barracks being full of smoke, making it very unpleasant both for the allies, soldiers, and sinners; but thank God through the barracks were very good of us gave a clear testimony to the power of God, he save from sin and evil habits. Hallelujah! Sunday all day was beautiful, from the first song at home-drill, to the last volley at night, it was a continuous outpour of peace and blessing. We closed the week's fighting very tired in body, but rejoicing over the good prospects there are in the hearts of the ranks of the enemy.
Here very soon. Lord hasten the time of our prayer.

THE CAPTAIN TAKES A
TEXT, and the let there be light.
D. ANDERSON, and there was light. This morning dawned on walking in the light of a loving Saviour. This week has been one of light and shining. Tuesday night there was a grand welcome to the D.O. and wife. Officers and Soldiers from Petrolia, and Multisville, and Walden. Capt. Emmett, and two hundred soldiers, from Fort Totten were with us who rendered us a good service. Staff-Capt. Burreth took for his text, "Create within me a clean heart," which brought light to the minds of those that had been somewhat gloomy on the subject of holiness. We all the week. Sunday a time of power.
Holiness meeting was a time of refreshing. In the afternoon one angel brother of the church said it was good to see him. He says, "I When you sing the glory of my soul." We had it grand to walk in the light.

Capt. Chamberlain.

STHATHROOY—Captain E. Smith.
Praise God, we are proving here that "Jesus is a Rock in a very land," and a shelter in the time of storm. God is sending the people into our barracks to hear the message of Salvation, and though many reject Christ, some have received His power to save. We had Staff-Capt. and Mrs. Barrett with us on Sunday, and although the weather kept many away from our meetings, God was with us, and blessed us.
Sinners were deeply convicted, and we believe some real work was done for eternity. We are believing yet to see the fruits. Trusting Jesus we shall win.

Thursday night, with two out for Salvation. Many times in the Friday business meeting, all down before God for more power, energy and zeal. God came upon us and filled us. Saturday a grand open air, and also grand meeting inside. Sunday, two at knee-drill.
A regular "Little talk with Jesus" meeting. Beautiful holiness and afternoon meeting. Night, 40 on the march, we formed into a cross and marched along singing. "At the cross." A wonderful time inside. After those who had no concern about their souls had withdrawn, I got down "At the cross," sung through splendidly, others wished to compromise, and so failed to get peace. We closed at twenty minutes to twelve, "faded" but "filled," and been well spent for God, and as a result, we had two souls, and three for God, and a soldier, and soldiers getting more of the Holy Ghost.

all the soldiers, praise God for the re-promise that "we shall reap if we do not

Eight souls have been rescued.
Out of sin's bitter thralldom.
Reckless returned and merry have found.

Like the devil in our chief delight,
Soldiers as fire for souls every night, holiness and soldiers they always are found.
Sabbath poor sinners who are wandering in agonies.
Instant in agonies is the creed that you preach.
Sinners deep sunk in sin we mean to raise.
The Lord bring our helper, we'll never give in,
But all of a Saviour who saved us from sin.

With the devil in our chief delight,
Soldiers as fire for souls every night,
found.
Where the blood of our Saviour cleanses from stains.

And you in conclusion to finish my rhyme,
To write my more I don't feel inclined.
For fear you should tell me to be short with the text.
If say "God bless you," and sign

SANBRO, N. S.—Bless the Lord for the week has been one of victory.
We are still marching to conquer the devil. One of our latest Captains was baptized. What a change the Lord makes when He leads a man into the light. With our brother he is rejoicing and takes his stand boldly for the Lord, pleading with his old comrades, and doing all he can to lead the ranks of the enemy. Our boys are glad and our souls. (Saved we hope, but this finishes it—E.).

KINGSTON.

CATARAQUI.

PAUL I. God is with us without a doubt, we know it, because we have seen Him manifest His saving power in our midst during the past week, also our holiness meetings have been times of Light and Liberty, and what revivings, the Spirit does give, and 18 were blessed with the Light and sought for cleansing. During the week we had some good meetings and surprised the devil, and 8 of his followers turned round upon him and began to follow Jesus.

Yesterday, Sunday was a terrible day indeed, moving and blowing, but the boys turned out well with drums and cornet, in some streets we had to go on the side walk as the snow was so deep on the streets. We had a good time with the boys. At our first meeting we had a blessed mellowing time, and I could come out for Salvation many more wanted it but went away without it. Afternoon we had a meeting to keep the sinners quiet, we sang and prayed the Lord with all our might, and at the close of the service came to the Fountain of Jesus' Blood.
What a blessed meeting we had at night as we got before the crowd the importance of accepting Salvation and at the close 11 soul came to Jesus, 5 for Salvation and 12 for Cleansing for the week.
